Session #1: Wednesday, January 20, 2021 at 10 am Eastern Time

Career Opportunities, Research and Planning for front line Security Practitioners

The security industry does a terrible job of informing its front-line staff about the many career opportunities available today. This first presentation in a three-part series will provide you with an overview of the career pathway and opportunities that are available to security practitioners. This presentation will provide you with the following:

- A clear pathway for those interested in moving up in their career. The tasks and skills required for numerous security positions starting at officer and ending with Chief Security Officer are described and discussed.
- The numerous resources available to those interested in planning and developing their career.

Host and Presenter:

Dr. Glen Kitteringham CPP started in the security industry as a loss prevention officer working for one of Canada's largest retailers: The Hudson Bay Company. Since then, he worked as a uniformed security officer at numerous sites, as a internal investigator, insurance fraud investigator, supervisor, manager, senior manager, director and consultant. He is the president and owner of Kitteringham Security Group, Inc. located in Calgary Alberta, Canada. He has worked across Canada, as well as India, Saudi Arabia and China.
